Generating ideas for possible collaborative team research

Research Cafe #4

Date: 20th October 2015 (Tuesday)

Time: 3:30 pm – 5:00 pm

Venue: GH404

Topic:

New Colleague, New Research Opportunities: Series 2

As part of the initiative to foster inter-disciplinary research collaboration, APSS is hosting another special Research Cafe to introduce Dr Wong Hok Wui Stan who will be taking up the position as Assistant Professor in APSS in January next year. Dr Wong received his PhD from UCLA and is currently Assistant Professor at the Department of Government and Public Administration of Chinese University of HK where he teaches Political Economy of Asia, Asian Comparative Politics, Political Research Methodology, Globalization and Politics as well as Taiwanese Studies. He has just published his book on Electoral Politics in Post-1997 Hong Kong: Protest, Patronage and the Media (2015, Springer). He is recipient of a GRF grant in 2015-16 and his current research interests are electioneering, social cleavages, civil engagement and public opinions in Hong Kong.

Dr Wong will be most interested in meeting staff members from schools/departments in APSS and FHSS and explore collaborative possibilities.
